

Seashells and Confession

If you do not have a sea shell at home to use on Sunday during service, color and cut out one of these. Remember, we think about all of our worries, troubles, mistakes and oops and put them into the seashell. We give them to God. The water is a symbol of washing it all away and we start fresh each week.

